

Clint Dubois

TEEN & COLLEGE AUDIENCE BIO

FOR MARKETING/PROGRAM/BROCHURE USE ONLY. DO NOT USE TO INTRODUCE CLINT ON STAGE

Clint is from Heber City, Utah. From a young age, Clint has been known for his high energy, creativity, humor, and unforgettable stories. As a senior in high school he attended Utah's premier flight school, receiving his pilot's license from OK3air. He then went on to Utah Valley University (UVU), graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Speech Communication with High Distinction from UVU's Nationally Ranked Leadership Program. He was very active in college as a Presidential Leader in the Center for the Advancement of Leadership, a UVU Ambassador and former UVU Student Body Vice-President, and was recently awarded UVU's distinguished Young Alumni Award. He has also appeared in Several Feature Films, America's Got Talent, and the Stadium of Fire. For over a decade Clint has traveled the globe as one of the world's most sought after Keynote Speakers. He has dedicated his heart to helping organizations understand the younger generation and helping the younger generation understand themselves.