Known as “The Millennial Speaker”, Clint Pulver helps organization that want to retain, engage and inspire the younger generation. As the President and founder of The Center for Employee Retention, Clint has transformed how corporations like Keller Williams, AT&T and Hewlett Packard create lasting loyalty through his work and research as “The Undercover Speaker”.

He has appeared on America’s Got Talent and in several different Feature Films with actors like Jack Black (School of Rock) and John Heder (Napoleon Dynamite). Clint was named one of Business Q Magazine’s “Top 40 Under 40” for his work in helping organizations elevate their “WHY” of mentorship in the workplace and how connected and engaged employees yield loyal and long-term retention within organizations.

For over a decade, Clint has dedicated his heart to helping organizations understand the younger generation and helping the younger generation to understand themselves. With a blend of humor, unforgettable stories, and actionable takeaways that stick, Clint convinces audiences on the power of The Mentorship Effect, and why some leaders create lasting loyalty and others don’t.
